PRINCE HAMPTON'S SPEED.

HE BEATS A FAIR FIELD IN SHEEPS HEAD BAY RECORD TIME.

Running Account Scores Again with a Sparkling Mile-Johnnie Blake and Brookdale Nymph Win Fast Races.

New York, September 13.—Herman B. Duryea's Sandringham—Dorothy Hampton colt, Prince Hampton, was the star performer at Sheepshead Bay this afternoon. He came out with Ostrich, Quagga and others in an eleven furlong selling race on the turf and, beating his party in an impressive way, hung up a new track record by running the distance in 2:583. It was a fine piece of racing with a frame of brilliant speed.

There was another huge crowd out and the track, while generally good, was spotty and cuppy in spots. The air was delightful and the sport of good quality.

while generally good, was spotty and cuppy in spots. The air was delightful and the sport of good quality.

Only one favorite, Jack Atkin, got home first. He had a hard time of it and won only by a few inches. The other betting choices were bowled over. Prince Hampton's victory at 15 to 1, nearly at the end, slaughtered the players of form and followers of favorites.

Brookdale Nymph's victory over Dandelion in the Omnium Handicap was scratchy, but the Whitney mare ran a sparkling race and might have been the best.

The western colt Johnnie Blake again showed his quality and liking for the turf, by bowling over Castlewood and The Squire in the easiest sort of way.

Running Account enriched his party again by a fine race and defeat of Danoscara, First Premium, Heasilp and others of good class.

Marbles, at a good price, scored in decisive style over Aunt Rose in the closing event.

Miller showed a fine piece of horsemanship on Jack Atkin.

Barney Schreiber landed the first race with Jack Atkin, but it required all of Miller's skill to bring binn in first. Mr. Whitney's promising maiden, Westbury, clung to him tenaciously through the stretch, and was slowly wearing him down at the finish. Don Enrique, after overcoming serious difficulties in the early running was lapped on the pair at the end and going fastest, and might have won if free from obstruction from the start. Quite a distance back but running well, Prejucio was next in front of the disappointing Red River.

Running Account seems to be more than an average two-year-old, and in taking the second race from such recognized good older horses as Danoscara, Heaslip, First Premium and Oxford put a decidedly meritorious performance to his credit. He made up ground steadily from a rearward start and challenging resolutely in the stretch won by a narrow margin from Danoscara in such excellent time for the track as 1:39\frac{1}{2}. Danoscara also ran a cracking good race and probably should have won. The other two-year-old in the race, Rialto, was responsible for the fast time scored, setting a red hot pace for over seven furlongs before he tired. Heaslip went well and is on the improving list, Oxford seems in poor form and First Premium was unlucky and ran disappointingly.

The Golden Rod Stakes was another triumph for the Cook stable, Johnnie Blake leading from start to finish and winning with all ease from some smart youngsters, to which he was conceding much weight. Castlewood put up a game struggle for second place and outstayed The Squire by a matter of a few inches in after the start and was not uselessly persevered with.

Prince Hampton stamped himself a rarely good stayer in the fifth race, a dash of a mile and three-quarters over the turf course, defeating two heavily backed choices in Banker and Ostrich and establishing a new turf course record for the distance. He ran the race in 2:58\frac{1}{2}, effacing Lancastrian's turf course record of 3:00\frac{1}{2}, made last year. It also beat Imp's record of 2:59\frac{1}{2}, effacing Lancastrian's turf course record of 2:59\frac{1}{2}, effacing Lancastrian's turf course record of 2:59\frac{1}{2}, effacing Lancastrian's turf course record of 2:59\frac{1}{2}, over the main course, made June 30, 1900. It is the fashion to decry Brussel's riding, but the boy rode like a veteran in this instance, saved his mount judiciously and made his effort at the right time. Banker ran in quickly improved form and easily disposed of Ostrich for second place. The latter had beaten him off a few days previously in a mile and a half race in which Brancas had beaten Ostrich a head. Quagga ran a good mile and a half before retiring.

The last race, a scurry for two-year-old fillies over the last five and a half furlongs of the Futurity Course, resulted in a decisive triumph for the somewhat inconsistent Marbles. She was in front in a jiffy and finally won pulled up six lengths in front of Aunt Rose. At the weights the latter ran a creditable race and, in a rattling finish, got the best of Miss Delaney in the struggle for second guoney.

pest of Miss Delaney in the struggle for second money.

Bunning Water worked nine furlongs in 1:53 between races this afternoon. It was pronounced a marvelous trial.

Bookmaker E. Burke backed Prince Hampton heavily and netted a fortune over his victory.

Graziallo pulled up so lame in yesterday's steepleciese as to be virtually broken down.

Jockey Walsh, who was seriously injured at the recent Brighton July meeting, made his reappearance in the saddle on Jane Swift Wednesday.

Jesse Lewisohn will go to the hospital next Saturday to be again operated upon.

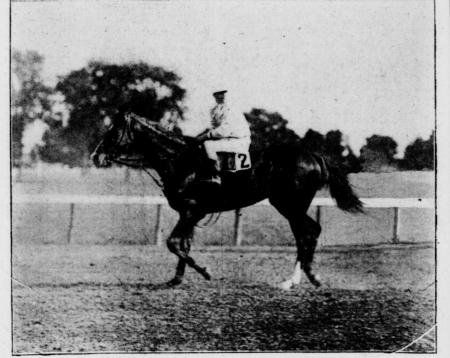

Slince the death of Commando and his pre-eminence as a sire, Olympian, one of the few sons of bonning now alive, is attracting attention among breeders. His present owner. W. A. Chauler, recently refused an offer of $7,500 for the old horse.

Hildreth will ship five full carloads of racers as soon as horse cars are available for California. All his yearlings go, also a portion of his horses in training. Guiding Star, Uncle, Rapid Water and Gene Russell will be raced on local tracks until the close of the season. Uncle is all right, in grand form and will race soon.

R. F. Carpan will take forty horses to Oakland to race during next winter.

THE FAVORITE FOR THE ANNUAL CHAMPION STAKES RUN TODAY.

MR. JAMES R. KEENE'S CHESTNUT COLT, BALLOT, BY VOTER-CERITO, W. MILLER UP.

It was illustrative of the remarkable resources of James R. Keene's stable this year, that when its champion three-year-old Peter Pan was disabled by an accident, it had in reserve another, practically as good and possibly better, ready to take up the burden of garnering the great stakes of the year for his fortunate owner. This was the chestnut colt Ballot, by Voter—Cerito. Voter was a horse of grand speed up to a mile, but that was apparently about his limit. Ballot is all that his sire was in respect to speed and to him no distance seems to be vested with terrors and he is in all respects a high-class young horse.

As a two-year-old he was successful in but four starts out of thirteen, while this year he has been beaten in but one race in five. On that occasion he forced Charles Edward to run a mile in 1:37\footnote{g} to beat him, it being his first start this year and he was not thoroughly fit. When a two-year-old he won the first half of the Double Event at Sheepshead Bay, the Neptune Stakes at Brighton Beach, the colt's half of the Matron Stakes at Belmont Park and a purse. This year he has won the Iroquols Stakes at Brighton Beach, 1 1-4 miles in 2:05, with 126 pounds up; Invincible Handicap at the same track, 1 1-4 miles in 2:03\footnote{g}, carrying 117 pounds; Great Republic Stakes at Saturday, in which, carrying 115 pounds, be ran a mile and a half in 2:33\footnote{g} easily. To date his record is:

CONDENSED HISTORY OF THE WESTBURY STEEPLECHASE.

Named in honor of the late William C. Whitney's estate on Long Island, the Westbury Steeplechase will be contested for the eleventh time this afternoon and will again afford a view of the brilliant English jumper, John M. P., in action. In its time its honors have fallen to such crack timber toppers as Royal Scarlet, Dr. Catlett, Plato, Zinziber, Land of Clover and Good and Plenty and has never failed to furnish an interesting contest. Its record is as follows:

CONDENSED HISTORY OF THE GREAT EASTERN HANDICAP.

The Great Eastern Handicap has a long history and will be run for the twenty-fifth time this afternoon. It has been marked by many famous achievements, one of which was Hamburg's success with 135 pounds, the greatest weight ever carried to victory in the Great Eastern. Mesmerist and Burgomaster were afterwards winners when carrying 130. Other great two-year-olds that won in their respective years were Dew Drop, King Fox, Raceland, Tournament, Sallie McClelland, Lady Violet, One 1 Love, Ogden, Beau Gallant, Endurance by Right, Lady Amelia and Tradition. Probably a better two-year-old than King Fox, which won in 1886, never ran in this country, but he died in the winter after winning the Great Eastern. The record of the race to date is:

CONDENSED HISTORY OF THE ANNUAL CHAMPION STAKES.

In 1875 Springbok and Preakness ran a dead heat at two miles and a quarter in 3:561 in the Saratoga Cup, breaking all previous records and astounding the turf world. This stood as the record until Buckwa ran the distance in 3:51 at Oakland, December 31, 1898. The present record is 3:491, made by Ethelbert at Brighton Beach, August 4, 1900, in a titanic combat with the famous mare Imp. In the days of Springbok and Preakness races over the cup distance were frequent and 4:02 or 4:03 was considered excellent time for the distance. It is significant of the much greater average speed of tracks and racing in recent years that the Annual Champion has never been run in such now slow time as four minutes, and that in five of its seven years of running the time of the famous dead heat referred to has been beaten. The Annual Champion will be run for the eighth time this afternoon and its record is:

F. W. Doss also intends to campaign a big string at Oakland.

Jockey Mountain says he will ride on the coast next winter.

Johnnie Blake's easy victory in the aptly named Golden Rod confirmed the opinion that Cook's cot is one of the best performers over the grass course that the east has seen in years.

CORRIGAN'S RACING PLANS.

BIG STABLE OF THIRTY HORSES WILL START IN AT LOUISVILLE.

Lexington and Latonia Passed-Winter Campaign To Be Made at New Orleans Courses-39 Yearlings for Sale.

Edward Corrigan left Chicago for Lexington, Ky., last Thursday. An inspection of his farm and horses will fill in time until next week, when he will be in attendance on the Lexington races. It is not his intention to race any of his horses at either the Lexington or the Latonia meetings. All that are intended for racing are working at moderate exercise over the Hawthorne tracks unter the care of June Collins and Tom McGee. They number that the colline of the counce of June Collins and Tom McGee. They number that they will be sent to New Orleans, and in the counse of the coming whater meetings will be raced impartially over both tracks.

Owning a great band of stallions and broodmares horses naturally accumulate on Mr. Corrigan until he is overcowled, and as a new departure he has decided to relieve the situation by selling all of his yearlings except reven that are in California with their dama and not available for that reason. Below is a list of Mr. Corrigan's yearlings, twenty colts and had a selling of the exception of three, and those in California, this represents his entire crop of living foals of 1906. The other three were sold to Pat Dunne. Mr. Corrigan is reserving none of his yearlings for racing purposes. They will all be sold at private sale. He says they are as good looking a band of youngsters as are to be seen anywhere. None of them has ever worn bridle or saddle, but all are thoroughly halter broken. All are at the Corrigan farm, six miles from Lexington, Ky., on the Parkers Mill road, where they will be shown to prospective purchasers during the present race meeting at Lexington and the second of the same properties. #### EONITE FAILS THE MONTREAL TALENT Oroba Beats Him in the Mud at Blue Bonnets -Butwell's Bad Race.

Montreal, Que., September 13.—The Engineers' Cup and a steeplechase over the two-mile course were the feature races at Blue Bonnets this aftrnoon. Both racs furnished good contests in which the winners had to be hard ridden to beat out their opponents. The going was deep and heavy, and this meant that it took a good stout horse to last it out. Mud runners had a decided advantage, and the sharpshooters landed on the right ones in a majority of the races. Scratches were numerous and the fields in all but the first two races were small.

the sharpshooters landed on the right ones in a majority of the races. Scratches were numerous and the fields in all but the first two races were small.

Form players fared none too well. Excitement being the only winning favorite during the afternoon. E. L. Talley furnished the greatest upset of the day in the two-year-old Eonite, which was but recently transferred to him by J. W. Pangle. On his previous showing Eonite seemed like a sure thing and was heavily supported by the public. A shrewd division strung along to Oroba and their judgment proved correct, for Oroba was a handy winner. There was a peculiar angle to the race. Dennison, who has been riding for Talley and Pangle, had the mount on Oroba, while McCarthy was given the mount on Eonite in the absence of the regular stable jockey, Goldstein having been sent on to Toronto last night. Eonite showed a flash of early speed, but before they had gone a quarter Oroba had moved up on the outside and caught him. Entering the homestretch Eonite was down on the inside in the deep going, while Dennison kept Oroba on the outside in the good going. McCarthy never made a move on Eonite in the stretch run and Oroba beat him out a head.

In the steeplechase, T. Rae, who had the mount on te favorite, Butwell, made a very weak effort, and to square himself lodged a complaint of foul against the winner. Gold Run. In the early running Ikae kept far back with Butwell, and not until after they had taken the tenth jump did he make a move. In the next furlong he closed a gap of infteen or twenty lengths, and the result was that Butwell tired in the final drive, and this alone enabled Gold Run to last long enough to win.

The following horsemen shipped their strings to Toronto this morning: Jack Thornby, William Walker, G. E. Dudley and J. J. Walsh, Tomorrow J. W. Balock will leave, as will also W. O. Joplin, Mrs. Livingston. Herman Flippen, B. Ebaugh. Green B. Morris, J. W. Pangle, M. J. Daly and Edward Trotter. James Boden and the Hayman-McCarren Stable will go to Hamilton,

MR. BELMONT RELEASES MOUNTAIN.

MR. BELMONT RELEASES MOUNTAIN.

New York, September 13.—August Belmont has released jockey George Mountain from his obligation to ride for his stable during the remainder of the season. Mountain, who has been at Belmont Park since the wind-up of the Saratoga meeting, got a letter Wednesday from the chairman of the Jockey Club announcing that he was free.

But now that his connection with the Belmont stable is severed he will get to work and lick himself into condition to ride once more. John E. Madden has second call on his services for the remainder of the year, and Madden's stable shelters several good horses that are in first class condition just now. Mountain expects to keep busy riding for Madden and as a free lance.

His contract with Mr. Belmont was canceled at his own request. He asked Jack Joyner at Saratoga to let him go. Joyner had no authority to cancel the contract, but he referred Mountain's application to Mr. Belmont. Mountain was in bad form at Saratoga and he laid off three weeks because he thought he was becoming track sore.

KENTUCKY RACING COMMISSION.

Lexington, Ky., September 13.—The State Racing Commission meets here tomorrow morning. Colonel Clay's amendment to the rules, which will prohibit a bookmaker from booking at a point where his horses are running, will also come before the commission. This was also laid over from the last meeting, owing to the illness of Colonel Clay. As he will be on hand tomorrow the commission will act on it, and from what can be learned it will be adopted. It is expected that Churchill Downs will get thirty days' racing following Latonia. Douglas Park will not be used. The case of jockey T. Taylor, suspended at Latonia for alleged fraudulent riding, will also be decided.

JOHN . M. P. TO BE SOLD.

Grant High Browne, who races under the name of the Brownleigh Park Stable, will sell his crack jumper, John M. P., together with Sewell, They're off and the other older horses in his string at auction today through the Fasig-Tipton Company at Sheepshead Bay. He does not intend to abandon racing, but will make a new start with two-year-olds next year.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

[Communications without names and addresses of senders will not be answered or noticed.]

H. L., St. Louis, Mo. The Silver Line bet was a draw.

Joe J., Cincinnati, O. The parlay won. Gus Straus was the Colt entry.

J. E. K., Kenosha, Wis. 7 to 10 and 9 to 5 Miss Crawford would be fair prices.

T. M., St. Louis, Mo. Repeat your query next week. Cannot give you opening now.

W. Nabel, Cincinnati, O. Daily Racing Form does not report such racing as that at Norfolk, Va. The record shows that Exact won there September 10, at closing odds of 4 to 5.

F. P. Tozer, St. Louis, Mo. Rye, in race 70882.

F. P. Tozer, St. Louis, Mo. Ryc, in race 70882, was 8 to 5 opening and 4 to 1 closing. There was no error, You enclosed no clipping. It cut no figure however. The prices were right.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Ben Fleet has rheumatic shoulders and is heavy headed and a hard horse to ride. In consequence Nicol's work on him in the Waldorf Stakes is ac-counted as perfect by the eastern critics.

Trainer Karrick of the Oneck Stable is pointing Cohort for the Junior Champion, to be run next Saturday at Gravesend. Jim Gaffney, Uncle, Johnny Blake, Bar None, Firestone and Falcada, to say nothing of Colin. Celt and Restigouche are cligible for the same classic.

Henry Horn is back from Norfolk. He said that the meeting was sure to be a financial failure, but that it would run thirty days, as the man who is supplying the money is as game as they make them and has declared that he will run as advertised no matter if he goes broke,—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Went to post at 2:55. Af post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Running Account, afways within striking distance, came along with a rush on the outside in the last quarter and got up in the last stride. Danoscara ran in prominent contention throughout on the inside in deep going and tired finally. Rialto set a stiff pace for six furlongs and saved third place after a long stretch drive. Heastly was a very good contender for six furlongs and held on well at the end. First Premium, taken back frequently and generally messed about, falled to get up for third place under a very bad looking fride. Oxford was sore and unfit to start.

Winner—Ch. c, by The Commoner—Salaire (trained by W. E. Phillips)).

Went to post at 3:26. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Johnnie Blake dashed into the lead at the start, won all the way and is apparently almost invincible on the grass. Castlewood, shut off early and pulling up frequently, finally went wide on the last turn, getting up in the last stride for second place, but losing all chance to win. The Squire ran in nearest pursuit of the winner to the last stride, where he tired finally after a good effort. Robert Cooper, well up all the way, finished fast and is improving. Countermand, away badly, closed up steadily and ran like a stayer. Senator Barrett showed good early speed and dropped out in the last quarter. Creation was outpaced all the way. Statched—70778 Sanguine, 105; 70879 Woodlane, 112.

Winner—Ch. f., by Meddler—Castalia (trained by J. W. Rogers).

Went to post at 3:52. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Prockdale Nymph was rushed through on the inside, knocking everything about like ninepins, was enabled to steal a long lead and, after pulling over and shutting Dandellon off on the inside in the stretch insished boring out and impeding him all of the last quarter. Dandellon, bumped on the first turn, closed an immense gap, falled in trying to come through on the inside and afterwards was bumped into defeat in the closing struggle and was much the best. Old Honesty got into third place early in the struggle and stayed there after a superior effort. McCarter, nearly left, closed a big gap. Faust, also flatfooted and away very badly, made up much ground. Monfort showed brief early speed, but was never dangerous and probably short. Kennyetto got away very badly and had no chance.

Scratched—(70654) Running Water, 126; 76905 Oxford, 107; 70881 Kentucky Beau, 100; 70870 Borghesi, 160.

Went to post at 4:23. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Prin Hampton, patiently reserved in close pursuit of the pacemakers for one and a half miles, made good wishort end sprints. Banker trailed in the rear until passing the stand the first time and closed an immengap into a fast coming second. Ostrich closed up under a pull, moved up at the half and weaken finally. Quagga helped force the pace from the start, but tired in the closing drive. Flavigny, reserving a good forward position, tired at the end of a mile and a half. Lally quit badly. The winner we entered for $1,500; no bid.

Scratched—70894 Lancastrian, 110.

Winner—B, g, by Handspring—Merrywise (trained by T. E. Crist).

Went to post at 2:33. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won cantering; second driving; third the same. Wise Hand, off forwardly, went around on the outside with a rush and, dashing into a big lead, was under restraint all of the last quarter. Tenez dropped back on the turn into the homestretch, but closed up again under punishment. Knight of Hillsboro responded gamely to punishment and finished well. George Swain showed a flash of speed for a half mile and then quit. The same applies to French Hill. Scratched—70799 Loretta Mack, 97; 70736, Tagane, 97; 69421*Harmony, 97.

Winner—B. g, by Hawkswick—Amaranth (trained by J. D. Merchant).

Went to post at 3:57. At post I minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Hawkama was saved for the first half and permitted Botanist to dash to the front on the far turn and set the pace, but closed up when ctraightened out for the stretch run and, wearing the leader down, won going away. Botanist was speedy, but was made entirely too much use of in setting the pace, which was very fast considering the going, and quit when Hawkama caught him. Royal Onyx was sharply cut off at the half-mile ground and was pulled up.

OLD LEXINGTON'S AUTUMN REVIVAL.

Lexington, Ky., September 13.—After a lapse of nine years Lexingtonians will again witness a period of fall racing. The last autumn meeting held here was in 1898 and the racing then terminated sudenly on Thanksglving Day on account of unfavorable weather, Primate, owned by W. H. May, taking the last purse. The revival of fall racing has brought an influx of horsemen here from varialisms sections of the country and indications are that the present meeting will surpass any held at the historic course in a decade.

There is any number of good horses ready to participate in the sport and the opening day's card is of exceptional merit. There may be a scarcity of good riders, but as those who will liave mounts are of an even rating there will be but little advantage. In round numbers there are about fifty siders on the ground. The list of officials who will have charge of the meeting are experienced men. Charles F. Price will be the presiding judge and Jacob Holtman will wield the starter's flag.

Among the horsemen recently arrived and who will send horses to the post are: T. P. Hayes, J. U. Strode, Oots Bros., E. T. Graves, S. M. Henderson, George Holle, J. J. Marklein, M. Young, P. Dunne, J. C. Ferriss, Jr., W. H. Fizer, J. Fizer, J. C. Milam, J. H. Baker and others. There are at least four hundred horses now quartered at the track.
